

<https://www.legacy.com/obituaries/seattletimes/obituary.aspx?n=amy-kikoshima-doi&pid=170217178>

Amy Kikoshima Doi

Amy Kikoshima Doi, aged 95, passed away peacefully March 14, 2014, with her family close by her side. Amy joins her loving husband, Jim Doi, among many blessed angels in heaven. They are both likely with fishing poles in hand watching over us from above, happy to be reunited again at last.

Amy is survived by her only daughter, Jan Gerry (Dana), 5 grandchildren Mark (Cynthia), Chris, Dana, Curt (Joanie), & Aimee; and 5 great-grandchildren, Michael, Griffin, Rachel, Faith, & Max. She was the rock of this family and we will all miss her more than words can describe. Her passion for cooking is evident by the countless times she hosted dinners and tried adventurous recipes (successfully!) on family and friends. This might be second to her love for travel. Amy and Jim traveled all over the world together on the search for precious gems, rocks, and tasty treasures. And of course no one can deny her unbelievable talent for sewing where Amy outfitted her daughter in the trendiest of clothes for much of her life.

A celebration of Amy's life will be held on Saturday, March 22nd, 2pm at Japanese Presbyterian Church, 1801 24th Avenue South, Seattle, WA 98144.

To Plant Memorial Trees in memory, please visit our Sympathy Store.
Published in The Seattle Times on Mar. 16, 2014.